Flowing Over the Levee

The Mighty Mississippi River Bursts Its Banks

FLOODING NEW ORLEANS, LA.

The Water Six Inches Higher Than Was Ever Recorded at That Place—Reports From All Along the River Show That Great Damage Has Been Done at Many Places.

NEW ORLEANS, March 14.—The river here at 8 a. m. was sixteen and three-tenths feet; at 2:45 it was reported by the harbor station at sixteen feet nine inches, and at 2:50 they reported the water at seventeen feet, but it remained at that point but a short while, when it receded to sixteen feet eight inches, where it seemed to make a stand. This was six inches above the record of other years, and the water went over the levees all along the city front, in every depression or low place, and so flooded the streets and sidewalks of a large section of the city.

Uptown, at the head of Jackson, Washington and Sarapara streets, the waves washed over the levee and submerged the streets and sidewalks; the same thing occurred at other points down to Poydras street. Here the water spread out over the broad space occupied by the Morgan road, filled up the low places, and then began to flow down Poydras street and out into the cross streets on either side covering the sidewalks on Poydras street as far as St. Charles street, and filling the gutters back to the drainage canals in the rear of the city.

On Grover street the water flowed freely, completely covering the street in places. At the head of Canal street the water was running over the levee but very little, but from Custom House street to Conti the water came over the levees freely and completely submerged the streets, and in many places the sidewalks and lower floors of business houses. From the north side of Canal to Hospital street, a distance of fourteen blocks from the river to Rampart street, a distance of eight blocks, the water flows off in the gutters of street drains to the drainage canals in the rear of the city.

Below Elysian Fields street the water is passing over the levee in many places. On the north side of Canal street the sidewalk in front of the Touro buildings was overtopped. Hill's jewelry store was invaded by the water, and other business places suffered in like manner. The damage done so far is not great. The greatest damage was that sustained by merchants who had sugar stored in the old bonded ware house on Old Levee street.

At 9:30 p. m. the gauge at the head of Canal street was sixteen and eight-tenths feet, showing that the river has remained about stationary since 3 p. m.

Thus overflow seems to have taken the people by surprise, though all who had business on the levee made preparations for it to the extent of removing their goods to safe quarters.

Since yesterday evening the levees across the river have been in danger, and the water is coming over from the line of the Davis Cruesse above the city to the lower line, a distance of some fifteen miles. In many instances the water flows back for ten squares. Large forces have been at work raising the levee with sacks filled with earth.

The Southern and Crescent Oil mills were being washed under by the water, and the floors were torn away and embankments built underneath.

A break at the Hatch Place near Harvey's canal only reached a width of four feet when it was discovered and promptly closed. It is still a dangerous spot as the levee is very weak there. The levee at Sharp's Place, five miles above Gretna, where there was a serious crevasse some years ago, is again creating anxiety, as it shows signs of weakness and a large force of men are at work to strengthen it.

A canal empties into the river just above the city limits on the right bank, and is the avenue by which boats reach Bayou Barataria, and the oyster and fishing grounds below. The water has reached the top of the locks, and they will not be opened any more for the present as the letting in of the river might lead to damaging results.

From the Canal street ferry to the Morgan railway depot the principal portion of Algiers, a distance of three-quarters of a mile, the situation at one time was very threatening. About noon the water commenced washing over the levee along its whole length, and in a short space of time the entire front and the street for ten blocks back were flooded. Yardmaster McGuire, of the Morgan railway, and the city forces went to work at once, and in four hours threw up an entire new levee. That stopped the flow temporarily, but the water was already knee deep on the front street. The Southern Pacific and Texas Pacific railway tracks are both across the river, but travel is still uninterrupted, owing to the good work done.

Just below Algiers is the Orleans levee which commands a large section of country. A new levee was constructed only a few days ago, but the river has been climbing up and the warning signal has been again given. The water is six inches deep over the levee's crest. Men and material were promptly furnished, and a gallant effort is being made to stay the flood.

The swell caused by the ocean steamers seriously interfered with the work at the levees several days ago washing some of the new work out into the road, and the mayor has asked the governor to issue a proclamation to steamships to show a due regard for the safety of levees.

The city council last night adopted a resolution appropriating $50,000 for work in the levees during the danger period.

Baton Rouge—River has risen six inches.
Bayou Sara—Risen nine-tenths of a foot.

Natchez—River rose six-tenths of a foot. The private levee on Davis Island, Lake Concordia, has given way flooding Novelty, Evergreen, Sahara, Morgan and Potawama plantations. The steamboat Leathers is hard aground at Pecan Grove, having run into an old field.

Greenville, Miss.—River rose two inches here, and about the same at all points in this section. The levees still hold out.

At some places below Arkansas City the water is running over the levees. Rain continues.

Lake Providence—Rain and high wind all Wednesday night; rained all day yesterday; river rose one and one-half inches.

St. Joe, La.—River rose six inches, heavy rain still falling.
Donaldville, La.—River rose seven inches, now eight inches below high water mark.

Vicksburg—River rose two and one-half inches; strong wind, with rain all day.

Plaquemine, La.—River rose six inches.

Greenville, Miss.—Reports up to 6:30 p. m. from all points in this levee district, above and below, indicates that all is serene this side of the river. The levees above will stand from three to five feet, and below two to five feet more water than we now have to contend with. Full confidence is felt that there will be no break or overflow in this district. The rain has fallen here for fifty-four hours, and the total fall exceed five inches. The river here has risen one and a half inches in the past twenty-four hours, and is still rising, with the gauge indicating forty-three feet.

Alexandria, La.—Rainfall since Tuesday four and a half inches, river rising.

The Floods in Arkansas.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 14.—Details of the flood in Arkansas are very meagre. At Batesville the White river rose thirty-two feet in twenty-four hours, flooding all the lower part of the town. The depot and freight houses of the Iron Mountain railroad are two feet under water. The water stands six feet deep in the hotels and business places at Black Rock, and the destruction to property will be heavy. No trains have reached Newport since Tuesday, and orders have been given to remove all cars from the Iron Mountain yards.

A telegram from Little Rock says the news from the interior towns is that all the streams are high and a number of bridges have been washed away. No trains have arrived there from Fort Smith since Monday, and all roads are badly delayed. At Pine Bluff the Arkansas river is rising rapidly, and there is danger of the government dykes being destroyed. The situation between that point and the Mississippi river is reported to be alarming.

The Flood in Missouri.

POPLAR BLUFF, Mo., March 14.—The floods are becoming greater. Rain fell again last night and the river is a great moving lake miles wide. No trains arrived from the north and three from the south are laid up here. A large county bridge across a branch of Black river, one mile from this city, was washed away yesterday. Another in course of construction is also said to have given out from further up the river. Word has come in from several places where people are driven to house tops and are in great danger. The rain has ceased but the weather is threatening.

A Creek Eight Miles Wide.

SIMPSON, Ill., March 14.—All streams from Carbondale to Paducah, Ky., are miles and miles out of their banks. Crab Orchard creek, above here, is eight miles wide, while Big Bay covers a territory hardly short of ten miles wide. Four trains are waterbound here and cannot turn a wheel until the waters subside and all bridges are repaired. The loss to the railroad company and farmers will be thousands of dollars.

The Ohio below here, and near Metropolis, is on a wild tear.

Railroad Traffic Suspended.

MARION, Ill., March 14.—Overflow of the streams in this vicinity has caused a suspension of railroad traffic between Marion and St. Louis in one direction and Paducah in the other, while great damage has been done by the flooding of farm lands.

The crevasse in the levee above Arkansas City is 400 feet wide, and the city is likely to be overflowed.

A Break in the White River.

COLUMBUS, Ind., March 14.—At 7 a. m. yesterday White river at this point broke over a levee that for thirty years has stood the pressure of the stream, completely submerging forty acres of growing wheat, and changing the current of the stream, running through this fine body of land at a damage of $5,000 to Josiah Beatty, a farmer.

Wealthy Man and Wife Murdered. DAVENPORT, Iowa, March 14.—The little town of Brown, a station on the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad, in Clinton county, was the scene of a tragedy yesterday. Henry Nurre, a wealthy farmer, was found murdered in his home, and his wife fatally wounded. A reward of $1,000 is offered for the murderers, as to whom there is no clue.

Oklahomans Rejoice.

GUTHRIE, T. T., March 14.—The news of the passage of the Oklahoma bill by the house was received here with demonstrations of rejoicing. Crowds of new paraded the streets, headed by brass bands, and carrying the National flag. Fireworks were displayed in the public square, and many public and private houses were illuminated in honor of the event.

The Senate and House.

What Our National Lawmakers Were Doing.

APPROPRIATION BILLS PASSED.

The Building of Bridges and Public Buildings Provided for—The Blair Bill Further Discussed—The Oklahoma Bill Passes the House—Other Washington Dispatches.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The senate yesterday amended and passed two house bills for bridges across the Missouri river at Pierre, S. Dak., and across the Columbia river, between Washington and Oregon.

Senate bills for public building were as follows: Stockton, Cal., $85,000; Mammoth Hot Springs, in the Yellowstone National park, $10,000; Pawtucket, R. I., $100,000; Woonsocket, R. I., $100,000; Hudson, N. Y., $100,000; Virginia City, Nev., $75,000; Hastings, Neb., $150,000; The Dalles, Ore., $100,000; Salem, Mass., $100,000; Stillwater, Minn., $100,000; Reno, Nev., $75,000.

Mr. Eustis referred to two statements made by Mr. Hoar Wednesday in reference to the southern states, one that in the state of Louisiana and in some other states there were laws which made it a penal offense for a white man to associate on terms of equality with a black man. He asserted that there was not the slightest foundation for such a statement. The other statement of Mr. Hoar was to the effect that there was another law in Louisiana which provided for the sale of colored men for a certain time out of work, and that the former master should have the preference in the purchase. He asked Mr. Hoar whether he could find any such law on the statutes books of Louisiana.

He (Mr. Eustis) knew that the criticism was directed against the Democratic legislature of Louisiana of 1866-67, but he had never heard a Republican senator criticize the infamous laws enacted in Louisiana by Republican legislature. There was no such law however, as that which Mr. Hoar had referred to, and any pretense that there was only illustrated with what recklessness and destitution of sense of responsibility Republican senators spoke of southern affairs.

Mr. Hoar said he had erred about Louisiana, but a law of this character existed in Mississippi.

The educational bill was taken up at 2 o'clock and Mr. Blair addressed the senate. At the conclusion of his remarks, Mr. Call endeavored to introduce a preamble and resolution regarding the nominees to certain Federal offices in Florida, but Mr. Chandler made the point that they referred to executive matters.

Mr. Hoar resumed the discussion of the laws of southern states relating to southern people. Had it not been for the objectionable laws passed by some of the southern states, he said, the government of those states would have been remanded in 1865 to those who governed before the war.

Mr. Sherman asked Mr. Eustis whether he did not know that the fifteenth amendment never would have been proposed but for the fact that laws of the southern states were depriving the negro of his rights of citizenship. Mr. Eustis asserted that all reconstruction measures and constitutional amendments were adopted by the Republican party with the object of Africanizing the south and maintaining political supremacy, and this he characterized as the "greatest crime ever committed against civilized communities."

Mr. Sherman then made a long speech in favor of reconstruction measures, and was ably replied to by Senator Butler.

When Mr. Butler finished his speech the senate went into executive session, and at 5:15 adjourned.

The House Transactions.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The house passed bills granting right of way to railroads as follows: Through the Mille Laes Indian reservation, Minn., to the Little Falls, Mille Laes and Lake Superior Railway company, through the Indian Territory to the Galena, Guthrie and Western Railway company, through the Nez Perces Indian reservation, Idaho, to the Pelouse and Spokane Railway company.

The house then went into committee of the whole on the Oklahoma bill.

On motion of Mr. Tarsney, of Missouri, an amendment was adopted for establishment of a land office in No Man's Land.

On motion of Holman, of Indiana, an amendment was adopted providing that no person having a fee simple to 160 acres of land in any state or territory shall be entitled to enter the land by this act.

The hour of 4 o'clock having arrived the committee rose and reported the bill to the house.

The amendment adopted in committee of the whole, providing that Section 2130, revised statutes, prohibiting the introduction of intoxicating liquors into the Indian Territory, shall be in force in Oklahoma until after the adjournment of the first session of the legislative assembly, was agreed to—yeas 134, nays 108. The bill was then passed—160, 25. It is a substitute for the senate bill on the same subject. The bill contains provisions, which in substance, fix the boundaries of the new territory so as to include the Cherokee outlet with a proviso, that no lands to which the Indians occupy under treaty or law shall be included without their consent, except for judicial purposes. They extend over the new territory the constitution and laws of the United States and the code of Nebraska without interference with the local Indian governments. It also provides for the election of a legislative assembly; provision is made for the establishment of a supreme and district courts. The Cherokee outlet is declared to be public land and open to settlement under the homestead laws. The house at 5 o'clock adjourned.

The Senate's Secret Session.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The secret session of the senate yesterday afternoon was devoted to routine business. The nominations of Brady and McCull, collectors of internal revenue in Virginia, which were held up in the committee on finance from Dec. 19 to March 11, were confirmed without contest. There were only two votes against Brady in the committee, one from a Democrat and one from a Republican.

The committee on the judiciary, it is stated, has agreed to report favorably the Florida nominations which have been held up for nearly three months.

MARRIED A FORTUNE,

And Forthwith Gave Himself Over to Extravagance and Speculation.

LAFORTE, Ind., March 14.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of J. Ford, a prominent hotel man of Plymouth, Ind., has been solved by the receipt of a letter dated St. Louis, saying that he was in that city. Ford was a very promising young man, but his wife's fortune proved to be the cause of his downfall. He married Mrs. Nellie Krauss. Mrs. Krauss had a snug little fortune left her by her first husband, and Ford succeeded in losing many thousands of dollars by reckless speculations.

Mrs. Ford was in ignorance of her husband's extravagance, supposing, of course, that her fortune was being used by Ford in his business. Several weeks ago he opened negotiations for the purchase of the Parker house, the leading hotel at Plymouth, and through misrepresentations Ford succeeded in securing about $3,000 in cold cash. Mr. and Mrs. Ford moved to Plymouth. All went well for a few days. Ford worked himself into the good graces of M. W. Simons, a wealthy citizen of the place, and of whom he secured $1,500. One night Ford turned up missing, as did also the money.

THE OHIO AND NORTHWESTERN

Purchased by the Philadelphia Investment Company.

CINCINNATI, March 14.—The Ohio and Northwestern railroad, running from Cincinnati to Portsmouth, was sold Thursday morning by United States Marshal Simmons for $900,000 to the Philadelphia Investment company.

The road is the old Cincinnati and Eastern, and had two mortgages on it. The judgments upon which the sale was ordered were obtained by bondholders for defaulted interest and bonds of the old Cincinnati and Eastern, and aggregated $170,000. The Philadelphia company was trustee, and was the only bidder, the court fixing the minimum acceptable bid at $900,000.

BABY STEWART'S PARENTS.

The Father a Student at Rochester Theological Seminary.

MITCHELL, Ind., March 14.—The father and mother killed in the Lake Shore railroad disaster last week whose body was so miraculously saved on its dead mother's breast, are Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Stewart, lately of Franklin, Ind.

Mr. Stewart graduated in the class of '88 at Franklin college, and was attending the Baptist Theological seminary at Rochester, N. Y. He was a young minister of great promise, having held two or three pastorates in Indiana. "Baby" Stewart will be cared for by the parents of Mrs. Stewart, of Van Wert, O.

An Eng near's Dead Body Found.

BINGHAMTON, N. Y., March 14.—The dead body of Michael Keating, a locomotive engineer, until recently employed on the Erie railroad, was found in the Susquehanna yesterday. He left home Wednesday night with the avowed intention of going to Susquehanna, Pa., in quest of work. It is believed he fell into the river while suffering from an attack of temporary aberration, from which he suffered at times. He leaves a wife and six children.

Two Missing Fishermen.

CLEVELAND, O., March 14.—William and Abram Colson started out from here Tuesday morning in a sail boat for the fishing grounds. Nothing has been seen of them since and it is supposed that both have been lost in the lake. The fishing grounds are eight miles out, two miles inside the line of heavy ice. It is conceded that their boat was stove in by collision with heavy ice and went down. Both men were unmarried.

Railroad Shops Burned.

COLUMBUS, O., March 14.—At 11:30 o'clock last night a fire broke out in the machine shops of the Hocking Valley railroad, located in the extreme southern part of the city. The flames spread rapidly, and in an hour the building was in ruins. The loss of the building is $50,000. Six engines, valued at $12,000 each were destroyed. One hundred men are thrown out of work. At 12:30 the fire was under control.

Rhode Island Republican Ticket.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 14.—At the Republican state convention here yesterday the following nominations for state offices were made: For governor—Herbert W. Ladd, of Providence; lieutenant governor—Daniel G. Littlefield, of Pawtucket; secretary of state—Samuel W. Cross, of Westerly; general treasurer—Samuel Clark, of Lincoln; attorney general—Horatio Rogers, of Pawtucket.

Hydrophobia Scare Spreading.

WASHINGTON, Ind., March 14.—The mad dog scare is spreading over Davies county and fifty dogs have been killed, due to the fear of hydrophobia. John Baker was badly bitten one week ago, but beyond a terrible swelling of the afflicted parts no serious symptoms have developed. George White lost a horse and colt and ten hogs, all afflicted with rabies.

Some Questions.

A new charter for Covington has passed the House of Representatives at Frankfort. Among other things we notice it is a clause that makes any person who is interested in a contract with the city ineligible to the office of Alderman or Councilman.

A clause almost exactly similar to this was stricken out of the proposed new charter for Maysville. It had been inserted in the charter by L. W. Robertson, Esq., and Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, two of the best lawyers in all this section, and it was inserted because they "thought it ought to be there."

Are not two or three of the members who were most active in having the clause stricken out interested in a contract with the city—a contract that will have to be renewed in a few years?

Weren't they informed at the start by Mr. Robertson or Mr. Wadsworth, in plain and unequivocal language, that if the clause remained in the charter it would undoubtedly make them ineligible for re-election?

Weren't they also told by Mr. Robertson or Mr. Wadsworth that they ought to be made ineligible for re-election—or in other words, that they had no business in the Council as long as they were interested in a contract with the city?

Ought not this clause be re-inserted in the new charter before the papers are laid before the Legislature?

If not, why not?

JUDGE WARD, of the Superior Court, is a candidate for re-election. No opposition so far, and not likely to be any.

HON. W. J. WORTHINGTON, of Greenup, has written some Republicans of this city that he will not be a candidate for Congress.

It is reported Ex-Congressman Thomas will be a candidate for delegate to the Constitutional convention, from Lewis County. That means that he will represent the county in the convention.

THE Louisville Commercial thinks the fight for the Democratic nomination for Attorney General of Kentucky will be between Hon. Evan Settle, of Owen, and Hon. W. J. Hendrick, of Fleming. The BULLETIN rises to remark that it will take a hustler to beat Fleming's favorite.

Retribution is Impending.

The time has passed for violent political necessities to rule the Republic. The people are intelligent; they have newspapers and schools for every home, and however devoted to party, they will revolt when patience is wearied, and when they revolt the deluge follows. The party of violent political necessities can't rule this free land; and if there is any lingering wisdom in Republican leadership, Czar Reed will be stripped of his crown and scepter; legitimate legislation by legitimate methods will be adopted; the taxes which oppress the people will be repealed; the jobbers and profligates will be turned away, and the honest and economical Administration of Grover Cleveland will be imitated.—Philadelphia Times.

Chester's Charter.

A move is on foot to have the charter of the town of Chester abolished. Petitions are being circulated for signatures and will be presented to the Legislature asking that body to repeal the act incorporating the town.

The municipal affairs of the town have been in a bad tangle for a year or so. No taxes were collected in 1889. At the annual election in January, Trustees were chosen and an organization afterwards effected with Mr. Fred Dressel as Mayor and Mr. George Clinger as Clerk.

There is said to be a move on foot to have the town incorporated as a part of the city of Maysville. Knowing ones predict that it will be only a few years before such a thing is done.

Entitled to the Best.

All are entitled to the best that their money will buy, so every family should have, at once, a bottle of the best family remedy, Syrup of Figs, to cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50c. and $1 bottles by leading druggists.

Household Hints.

Hot alum water, borax, salt water, dalmatian powder and carbolic acid are all vermin exterminators.

Rub your lamp chimneys after washing with dry salt and you will be surprised at the new brilliancy of your lights.

Wheat flour improves with age and costs far less if bought by the barrel than in small quantities. The drier the place in which it is kept the better, a dry, cool place being the standard rule for all stores.

Wine, coffee or fruit stains can be removed from table cloths by pouring boiling water over the spots before wetting or applying soda and coal oil, citric acid or wetting in whisky before washing. The acid will take the color out of red table cloths.

CONTENT.

They say that I am wearing my life away,
Out here in the country so far from town,
That gentle ways will never be mine,
Nor fashion's approval, nor wide renown,
So long as I work and my hands are brown,
And with homely work fill the book of "Time."

But they do not know how happy I am
In filling the place of mother and wife,
That the waving grain and the birds' sweet call
And the prattle of children is part of life,
And better, far better, than fashion's strife,
Yes, better than riches and farm and mill.
—Good Housekeeping.

Using the Teeth.

The law of deterioration from disuse obtains with the teeth, as well as with other things. The constant and regular use of them in masticating food tends to make them continually grow harder and stronger, and better able to resist the influences that make for decay, while on the other hand, living on soft food and neglect of mastication makes them tender, softens the enamel and renders them easily susceptible to corroding effects. This is sometimes especially shown in the case of people after a long illness, who find their teeth tender and sore when they begin to return to a diet of solid hard food.

A dentist, speaking on this subject, says: "Some men have healthy teeth all their lives because they were given good, hard food during infancy. That is the period to begin to save the teeth. Mothers and nurses give children soft food, utterly ignorant in many cases of the result. Crusts and hard stuffs should be given to children as soon as they can eat them. In this way the teeth begin to grow healthy, and gradually harden with time and use. The chewing gum girl gives her molars plenty of wholesome and unwholesome exercise. But chewing gum is not especially healthy, because only part of the teeth are used. It is jaw exercise more than anything else. But in eating hard, wholesome food all the teeth come in contact with the substance. Tobacco chewing is not healthy for the teeth, because the tobacco is generally placed in one location, like chewing gum, and there remains, until thrown out. The southern negroes have better teeth than most any race, because they use them from childhood up in masticating hard food."—Good Housekeeping.

THE BEAUTIFUL TROTTER STALLION

"J. D. B."

Formerly as Barney Wilkes, standard and registered in Wallace's American Trotting Register, and will make the season of 1890 at the stable of Dr. W. H. Ford, in Orangeburg, Ky., six miles south of Maysville and six miles north of Mt. Gilead, and will be permitted to serve a limited number of mares at the low sum of $20 to insure a mare with foal money due when mare is known to be in heat or parted with. All accidents at owner's risk, but care will be taken to prevent any. Lien will be retained on colt for season money.

DESCRIPTION AND PEDIGREE.—J. D. B. is a solid bay horse with heavy mane and tail, 15 1/2 hands high, muscular shoulder, with extraordinary back, amazing length from hip to hock, magnificent quarters, long, straight arms, flat legs, good bones and the best of feet. He was foaled July 25, 1886, bred by Thomas F. Tillett, Sharpshooter, Ky. This horse is a perfect model, has fine trotting action and goes in grand style. He has trotted quarters in 55 seconds and went a full mile in 2:40.

R. Warder, agent.

GEORGE P. LEAMING has obtained judgment for $5,000 damages against Dr. T. J. Mullen, at Batavia, O. Both parties live at New Richmond. The 10th of February, last year, Leaming fell through a trap door leading into a cellar, and dislocated his left shoulder. He went to Mullen who gave him medical attention. Leaming, however, never fully recovered the use of his arm and brought suit against the doctor for $15,000 damages. He was awarded $5,000, the largest verdict ever rendered in Clermont County in a damage suit. It seems that Leaming proved that after he had returned from visiting the doctor that his arm gave him so much pain he sent word to Mullen who failed to come and ascertain his condition. Mullen, on the contrary, declared that he was never informed that the injury was not progressing all right.

The Lottery Business.

The lottery is the most demoralizing game of chance yet devised. It permeates all circles, and reaches certain people who would scorn to be classed as gamblers, as the term is popularly understood. Men who have never entered a gambling hell, and women, too, are regular patrons of the lottery. Some of them would be ashamed for it to be known that they invest money in this way, and yet the fact remains. If the amount spent in every town in Kentucky for lottery tickets in a year could be made public the result would be surprising and the names of some of the buyers of lottery tickets would occasion still greater surprise. But a very small portion of the money thus spent ever finds its way back. Not one lottery ticket in a thousand sold ever wins a prize. Lotteries are established to make money for their managers. Men and women spend money in this way who cannot afford it. Some of them need it to buy the necessities of life and to pay honest debts incurred. The temptation to people who want to become rich without work ought to be removed as far as possible. They should be protected against themselves. The seed of condemnation of the law-making power of the State should be set upon all lottery schemes. The lottery should be suppressed.—Georgetown Times.

Over 3,000,000 bushels of coal will come down from Pittsburg on the present rise.

The Louis A. Sherley takes the place of the Chancellor in the Cincinnati and Portsmouth trade, and the latter boat goes to the bank.

The new Keystone State passed down at 5 o'clock last evening, a day behind time. Fog and heavy trade delayed her. She will pass up this evening.

Due up: St. Lawrence for Portsmouth and Andes for Pittsburg at 12 o'clock tonight. Down: Hudson and Sherley at 5 p. m. and Telegraph at midnight.

Captain Lewis Rice, an old-time clerk in the Cincinnati, Portsmouth and Pomeroy trade, has lost his eye sight and is confined to his home in New Orleans.

Captain Bay has given a contract for a new boat to take the place of the steamer Louise. She is to be 175 feet long and thirty-four feet wide, and is to be completed by June.

A Railroad on Tree Tops.

It is hardly known outside of the immediate neighborhood, but it is a fact that in Sonoma County, California, there is a railroad unique in construction. In the upper part of the country named, near the coast, may be seen an actual roadbed in the tree tops.

Between the Clipper Mills and Stuart Point, where the road crosses a deep ravine, the trees are sawed off on a level with the surrounding hills, and the timber and ties laid on stumps. In the center of the ravine mentioned two huge redwood trees, standing side by side, form a substantial support. These giants have been lopped off seventy-five feet above the bed of the creek.

This natural tree bridge is considered one of the wonders of the Golden State, and for safety and security far exceeds a bridge framed in the most scientific manner.—Golden Days.

The Folly Company To-night.

Rose Hill's English Folly Company will give an entertainment at the opera house to-night. Among the complimentary press notices the following is from the Chicago Times:

Burlesque does not seem to have lost its hold upon the theatre-goers of this city, judging from the crowd that packed the Lyceum last night. It was the first performance of Rose Hill's English Folly Company, under the management of Rice & Barton. The spectacular effects, especially those of the first part, were good. The burlesque, "Parisian Revels, or Cupid's Capers," is full of life and is very finely costumed. The specialties were good, and the whole show was a success.

T. J. Reigart's Remains.

M. H. MacBride, acting under instructions from Pension Commissioner Raum, arrived here from Lexington last evening and took charge of the remains of T. J. Reigart.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock, at Masonic Temple, under the auspices of the Masonic bodies of this city. An invitation to the public will be found elsewhere.

The remains will be forwarded to the family of the deceased at Washington City to-night by the C. and O. F. F. V.

Stock, Crop and Turf Items.

The attention of stock men and breeders of fine horses is called to the advertisement of "J. D. B." in another column. His pedigree is worthy of a careful study, and is fully set forth in the advertisement.

The stallion license in Bourbon County will amount to $3,500 for this year.

BATTLES BETWEEN FACTIONS.

A Brutal Butchery by Drunken Indians, Who Kill Women and Children and Loot and Burn Houses—A Brave Man's Ineffectual Sacrifice of Life.

PANAMA, March 14.—A correspondent at Lima, under the date of Feb. 12, writes: The antagonism existing between Senors Rosas and Morales Bermudez, the two candidates of the Constitutional party for the presidential nomination, is probably greater now than it was in the beginning, for the friends of both remain firm, and the agitation in the provinces has already assumed grave proportions.

From Puno news has been received of a collision between the Rosites and Bermudezistas, resulting in the loss of a number of lives and the pillage of many houses by drunken Indians.

Recently both Bermudez and Rosas arrived at Huanta, in the province of Ayacucho, where, under most serious auspices, they started an electioneering strife, and an armed collision between the two parties was the result.

It is also stated that a battle has already taken place in the streets of Huanta, and many on both sides were killed, among them being the chiefs of both parties in the town mentioned, namely, Senor Lazona, deputy of congress and head of the revolution, and Dr. Urbina, chief of the Rosas party. The prefect of Ayacucho informed the government of the fight, and the leaders of the parties have been held responsible. Luckily no other part of the republic is similarly disaffected, the general feeling being that the time has passed to resort to such extreme and turbulent measures.

Another account gives the following details of the Huanta fight: Dr. Urbina, having seen five members of his family fall at his side during the eight hours of the combat, left with the remaining members to seek refuge at the Matriz church. There he found a number of women, children and old people. The priest before the horrible tragedy took place, exhorted the Indians to desist in the name of humanity from their horrible mode of procedure, but when the Indians are drunk they are most furious and are incapable of reasoning.

As they drew near the church, threatening to burn it, Dr. Urbina, under terrible emotion, knowing that he had been the only cause for such action on the part of the Indians, and wishing to save the lives of the many innocent persons that had taken refuge in the church, resolved without losing time to sacrifice himself and terminate the anguish of his friends.

Leaving the church he addressed his enemies in the following strain: "I am Urbina whom you are looking for. Kill me if you like, but the persons in the church are not my accomplices. Do not injure them."

The priest to whom he announced his determination, gave him his benediction, and accompanied him to the door of the church, opening the wicket and bidding him good-bye, sobbing as he did so. The priest intended to return and close the church, but as he arrived at the porch he became deprived of reason.

A few moments afterward, as we passed the Plaza de Huanta, the head of this victim of the implacable hatred and barbarity of his countrymen was to be seen at a distance. The guerrillas, in their drunken fury, not being satisfied with the murder of Dr. Urbina, continued to slaughter the inhabitants, and to sack and burn the town for many hours afterward. Over one hundred lives were sacrificed to the old rancor existing between the families of Lazona and Urbina.

IT SNOWS OUT WEST.

Rio Grande Railway Blocked Again. Snow Eighty Feet Deep.

ALAMOSA, Col., March 14.—The Rio Grande railway has 200 snow shovellers at work opening the snow blockade across the San Juan range at Cumbres, on the east side of the divide.

The snow is reported to be sixty feet above the top of the telegraph poles, and for miles each side it is twenty-five to forty feet deep.—The deepest ever known in this locality. The weather is very severe, the temperature being 23 degrees below zero. This is the third time the pass has been snowed up this winter, and it will probably be ten days before it is opened.

Cattle Dying of Starvation.

FORT MCLEOD, N. W. T., March 14.—Reports of threatened disaster to cattle in the region of New Oxy, on the Red Deer river, are alarming. There is two feet of snow, with two separate and heavy crusts, from New Oxy northward, and the cattle, unable to reach grass, are already dying rapidly. Advice from the country lying between Mosquito creek and Red Deer river, indicate that the loss may possibly reach 75 per cent.

The Miners Strike Extending.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., March 14.—The Journal's Ashland, Wis., special says: The miners in Aurora, Pabst, King and Germania mines at Ironwood, are very likely to follow the example of the Norrie and Ashland men and quit work. Great dissatisfaction exists on account of a reduction in wages every year and the importation of foreign laborers. The statement that 3,000 men are already out is exaggerated. The advance scales for this season are larger than usual, and men feel more independent for that reason. They will try to obtain the wages paid three years ago.

Extending to Another Mine.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 14.—Hot water and steam from the flooded South Wilkesbarre shaft is pouring into the Stanton mine. A door connecting the mines is supposed to have been burned away. The Stanton will have to be abandoned for the present. The extent of the damage is not known.

HOW LEACH DIED.

A Postmortem Held Over the Body Flashed Out of the Chicago River.

CHICAGO, March 14.—A postmortem examination was made yesterday morning on the body of Rowland Leach, the New York traveling agent who disappeared from the Palmer house March 2, and whose body was found in the river Wednesday. The examining physicians found the organs to be in a healthy state and there were no marks of violence. They found, however, all the characteristics of a man who had been drowned.

Leach had a big roll of money when he disappeared, but only some odd change was found on his person. He is supposed to have been robbed by toughs while intoxicated and thrown into the river. The woman "Etta," whom he visited, has not been so far implicated in his mysterious death.

SAW HIS WIFE BURN TO DEATH.

A Paralytic Compelled to Witness His Companion's Struggle With Fire.

PORT HURON, Mich., March 14.—Mrs. Carlisle, and aged lady living three miles west of Marysville, while fixing the fire in a wood stove, on Sunday, ignited her clothing in some way. She fainted, and the clothing was burned from her body. The flesh was horribly burned up to her waist. She died on Monday.

Her husband was the only other occupant of the house, and was a witness of the whole occurrence, but was powerless to help her, as he is a paralytic and can move neither hand nor foot. For three hours he was compelled to watch the excruciating agony of his wife. When the daughter returned from church medical aid was summoned, but it was too late.

WHERE SPEECH IS NOT FREE.

A Cuban Editor Thrown in Prison for Preaching Annexation.

HAVANA, March 14.—The agitation in favor of the annexation of Cuba by the United States has at last reached a crisis. The journals which have been openly and boldly advocating annexation, encouraged apparently by public sentiment and immunity from interference by the authorities, have received a warning which have checked their utterances.

La Tordo, which has been conspicuous for its vigorous denunciation of the government and advocacy of independence or annexation, capped the climax last week by saying: "The Spanish government, by its disgraceful and ruinous administration of affairs in this island has done more than anything else to throw Cuba into the arms of the United States."

The editor of the paper was arrested two days ago and is still in prison. Other journals are now more cautious, but agitation among the people is stronger than ever.

The Story Not Believed.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The story that the Alliance in going out of Hampton Roads Wednesday, en route to China, had collided with another vessel is discredited at the navy department. News of the Alliance has been received since Monday when her commander telegraphed her departure. Several telegrams have been received at the navy department from Commandant Weaver of the Norfolk, Va. navy yard, but no mention of any mishap to the Alliance is made.

WASHINGTON, March 14.—The treasury department has denied the appeal of John Wanamaker, of Philadelphia, from the assessment of duty at the rate of 30 per cent. ad valorem on certain linen imported by him at the port of Philadelphia and re-warehoused at New York. The ground upon which the appeal is rejected, is that the statutory time had expired in which a protest should be filed.

The President's Investment.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 14.—President Harrison is investing his surplus cash in property here, two pieces being deeded to him yesterday. The first deed conveys to the president the half interest in the Harrison block, on the south side of Washington street, owned by his former law partner, C. C. Hines, and also the latter's interest in a lot on South Pennsylvania street, the total consideration being $21,000. The president now owns both properties exclusively.

A Watchman's Terrible Death.

LAPORTE, Ind., March 14.—Martin Rich, the night watchman for Loomis' factory, was found dead in the boiler room of the establishment yesterday morning. It is supposed that he fell from a ladder to the hard floor and the running hot water scalded him to death.

Freight Trains Wrecked and Burned.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 14.—Part of a freight train on the Georgia Pacific railway went through a trestle near Horse Creek mines at noon yesterday. The engine and car next to it passed over safely. The cars took fire and burned with the trestle. Conductor Martin, flagman Turner, Pete Saunders, colored, and Wesley Sauters, colored, were painfully injured, but will recover.
